Introducing The Strands' highly anticipated debut EP, Entanglement, recorded at the Sonic Boom Room in Venice, Los Angeles, CA and released independently on February 21st, 2015. The album showcases the band's genre defying original music and provocative lyrics. We hope you enjoy it.

The Strands, formed in late 2011, have been gaining critical acclaim for their original music and energetic live performances. With an emphasis on thoughtful and provocative lyrics, The Strands groove as British soul singer, Amanda Campbell, delivers their original material with passion and style. West Coast Blues Hall of Famer Richard Green is on lead guitar playing elegant and restrained rhythms and solos, alongside pianist and songwriter, Susan Ferrari on keys and background vocals, and Strands founder, Paul Campbell, on bass.
